New "New to A.A.?" Quick Links button & web page

It takes courage to ask for help or admit to having a problem. Only you can decide if Alcoholics Anonymous is right for you. Here are some resources to help you to decide if A.A. is right for you.

Court Mandated to A.A.

If you are going to A.A. involuntarily—as a result of a drunk driving charge, domestic situation, etc—you might have some reservations. If so, the pamphlet So You've Been Sent to A.A. may interest you.

Bridging the Gap

Bridging the Gap (BTG) is a program run by A.A. members to help newcomers and those leaving a treatment setting. If you are leaving treatment or corrections or just newly sober and want help connecting with A.A.: BTG Request Form.

HALTline Help

Are you Hungry? Angry? Lonely? Tired? Before picking up a drink, pick up the phone — the HALTline is staffed 24-hours a day. Whether sober three days or three decades, a HALTline volunteer is there to answer your call.

Newcomer Pamphlets

Here are links to pamphlets intended for newcomers to A.A.
